

Coach Tyrone Robinson joins the Rancho Mirage Football staff for the 2016 season as the freshmen offensive coordinator and quarterback and wide receivers coach. Coach Robinson has been coaching at RMHS since the school opened in 2013 as a basketball coach and also began to serve as the Head Track and Field Coach in 2015.

In addition to his Rancho Mirage experience, Coach Robinson has been involved in athletics since a very young age. At Palm Springs High School he was a three-sport athlete and he went on to play three sports at College of the Desert as well as playing football for Coach Roman Gabriel and running track for Hall of Fame Coach Jim Sackett at Cal Poly Pomona. While attending Cal Poly Pomona he began returning to the desert to coach receivers at PSHS.

After college, Coach Robinson coached track and field at Cal Poly Pomona for three years under Coach Sackett. Coach Robinson coached wide receivers at College of the Desert from 1988-1990, which included winning the Southern California Bowl in 1989. In 1994 he began coaching football at Cathedral City High School. From 1994 to 2014 Coach Robinson coached football, basketball and track during various seasons. In football he began as the freshmen head coach and eventually became the varsity offensive coordinator.

Coach Robinson is excited to be part of the RMHS football coaching staff and he is looking forward to helping students learn the game of football as well as being productive members of the Rancho Mirage High School community.
